

FISCAL NOTE

HB 633 - SB 1412

March 1, 2007

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires certain health care facilities, community centers, and pharmacies to post a national toll-free hotline for teens involved in a violent dating relationship.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant Increase State Revenues – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- The Health Related Boards and the Board of Pharmacy may incur an increase in the number of investigations due to complaints filed against facilities that have not complied with the regulation. Any increase will be not significant and absorbed within the existing resources of the boards.
- All Health Related Boards, by statute, are self supporting such that revenues equal expenditures.
